

Programme of "Name of the module": Programme of "diritto dell'economia" LAW ON ECONOMICS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Code: xxxxx • type of course unit (compulsory, optional): • level of course unit (e.g. first, second or third cycle; sub-level if applicable): xxxx • year of study (if applicable): xxxx, semester: 2st semester
Number of ECTS credits: 9 (workload is 150 hours; 1 credit = 25/30 hours) Number of ECTS credits: x (workload is xxx hours; 1 credit = 25/30 hours) Workload is the global work. The value of 1 credit can change between a module and an other
Teacher: Giuseppe Colavitti
1	Course objectives	The course will focus on the study of the italian economic constitution as it is affected by the integration into the european union and by the so called "globalization".
2	Course content and Learning outcomes (Dublin descriptors)	The course is designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the fundamentals of jurisprudence with an emphasis on the relationship between economics and the law, and in particular the issue of economic freedom. The lectures will be formatted as seminars and will cover timely cases related to the regulation of free competition when it involves issues of public interest affected by economic processes. In addition the classes will include a seminar focused on the discussion of current events and specific case-law regarding the consequences of economic competition on public interests..
	Prerequisites and learning activities	The student must have the basic notions of constitutional law.
4	Teaching methods and language	Live Lectures in the form of seminars will be accompanied by a discussion with the students' audience regarding the presented legal cases. The relative notes and other material will be made available to the students in class. Language: Italian Ref. Text books: 1) G. DI GASPARE, Diritto dell'economia e dinamiche istituzionali, Cedam, Padova 2017. 2) G. COLAVITTI, La libert�a professionale tra Costituzione e mercato. Liberalizzazioni, crisi economica e dinamiche della regolazione pubblica, Giappichelli, Torino 2012.

5	Assessment methods and criteria	The exams will be held in oral form and will have the purpose to ascertain the students' knowledge of the foundations of the treated subject, their ability to navigate the taught material and apply the methodological paradigm the course covers, as well as their use of an appropriate legal language, with particular emphasis on the application of the right technical terminology. Language: Italian or English Additional information Regarding the lectures schedule with indication of the relative days, hours and locations, dates of the exams, time reserved to the students-professors meetings and the contact information of the lecturer, please refer to the Faculty of Economics website: http://www.ec.univaq.it
---	--	--