

Nadia Fiorino, Ph.D. in Economics, University of Rome "La Sapienza", recipient of the 1992 fellowship of the Luigi Einaudi Foundation for Studies in Politics and Economics and of the 1998 NATO-CNR (Italian National Research Committee) fellowship. She is currently Associate Professor at the University of L'Aquila, where she has been teaching Public Finance and Local Public Finance since 2001. Her main areas of research are Public Choice, Public Finance and Institutional Economics. She has published in numerous academic journals in Economics (Public Choice, Journal of Institutional and Theoretical Economics, Journal of Public Choice and Public Finance, Constitutional Political Economy, International Journal of Law and Economics, Homo Oeconomicus). Nadia Fiorino is also member of the Società Italiana di Economia Pubblica (SIEP), of the SIE (Società Italiana degli Economisti), of the European Public Choice Society and European Society of Law and Economics). She is referee for numerous national and international journals in Economics and Political Science (American Political Science Review, Constitutional Political Economy; Economics Research International; European Journal of Political Economy; Journal of Empirical Legal Studies, Journal of Institutional and Theoretical Economics; Journal of Public Choice and Public Finance; Public Choice).