

Programme of “Economia del lavoro” “Labor Economics”
Number of ECTS credits: 6
Code:
Type of course unit: optional
1st Cycle in ECONOMIA E AMMINISTRAZIONE DELLE IMPRESE, 3rd year , 2nd semester
Teacher: Francesca Tironi
1	Course objectives and Learning outcomes	The course aims at introducing students to the Labor Economics, by means of an economic approach and available data analysis. The students should understand the theoretical aspects of the labor market and the behaviour of economic agents (individuals, families, firms...), as well as the main indicators of labor market and inequality and poverty indices.
2	Dublin descriptors	Topics of the module include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Education and the Labor Market - Labor Supply - Labor Demand - Labor Market Equilibrium - Labor Unions and Insiders/outside Models - Unemployment - Labor Markets Indicators and Inequality and poverty indices On successful completion of this module, the student should <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - have knowledge and understanding the behavior of the main agents in the labor market - have knowledge and understanding of the properties and functioning of the labor market - demonstrate skill in economic reasoning and ability to understand current economic problems; - demonstrate capacity for reading and understand other texts and for
3	Prerequisites and learning activities	The student must know the basic notions of economic principles and introductory macroeconomic theories contained in the exams Microeconomy and Macroeconomy
4	Teaching methods and language	Lectures Language: Italian Ref. Text books 1) BRUCCHI LUCHINO, Manuale di economia del lavoro, Il Mulino, 2001 (capp. 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 18, 21 e 22). 2) GEORGE J. BORJAS, Labor Economics, McGraw Hill, 2011 (cap. 12, par. 12.1,12.2,12.3)
5	Assessment methods	Oral exam